ADDICTION TREATMENT

Residential Treatment (Women)

“This was the best decision I have made for myself.”

PROGRAM PARTICIPANT

YOU DON'T HAVE TO FACE IT ALONE.

House of Friendship's community-based, four to ten-week residential program for adult women whose substance use has seriously affected their lives. Find support and encouragement on the road to recovery as you identify and address lifestyle issues in a safe, substance-free environment, while participating in evidence-based group and individual therapy sessions that build on your personal strengths.

Specialized services for those who are pregnant are offered, with one bed designated for this purpose.
